

Leading Elections Signs Printer, CampaignPros.com, Relocates to Rock Island, IL

After 2 years in Lincoln, IL, CampaignPros.com, a leading yard signs and political signs distributor, is moving to Rock Island, IL. The company will continue to focus on providing high quality yard signs for local and national political campaigns.

December 5, 2008 (FPRC) -- ROCK ISLAND, IL -- CampaignPros.com is a two-year-old company offering marketing materials for political campaigning, particularly their customized yard signs and election signs for political campaigns.

The company's yard signs product line and services available make CampaignPros.com a one-stop shop for any political campaign, from local to national levels.

Founded in Lincoln, IL by Jonathan Gainer, the company has experienced rapid success in both revenue and national exposure. New to the team are CEO Wade Baffa and Vice President of Sales Michael Mathews. Together, Baffa and Mathews bring nearly 20 years of combined experience to the company.

CampaignPros.com (<http://www.campaignpros.com>) offers a revolutionary online yard signs design system that allows site visitors to create, edit and even order their customized products right from the site, in a few short steps. In addition, any customer that needs a quote can fill out a short form 24 hours a day.

In addition to customizable political yard signs, CampaignPros.com also offers signs, banners, apparel, website creation, automated phone calls (robo calls), and direct mail marketing solutions for political campaigners.

While political campaigners are the primary consumer, CampaignPros.com is also positioned to provide high quality promotional marketing materials for businesses, schools, churches, and organizations.

About CampaignPros.com: CampaignPros.com (<http://www.campaignpros.com>) is a company that specializes in custom campaign yard signs and other promotional materials. Customers can choose from many ready-made templates or have the in-house graphic design staff create a completely custom sign.
